The Junior Class of the Academy gave a social at the home of Miss Anna Pace Friday evening, in honor of their class member, Ben Robinson, who leaves soon for a mission.

Howard Standish, of Mesa, came in Friday evening. One of our popular young ladies was the drawing card.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Jolly, entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Jolly's brother, Carl, who is to leave for a mission.

A good deal of business was transacted at the monthly priesthood meeting Saturday. The Academy was crowded with people attending from all over the valley.

Mrs. Cynthia Layton and Mrs. Catherine Pace went to Globe Saturday evening, for the purpose of holding primary conferences at Globe and Miami.

The spelling contest between the districts of Safford, Thatcher, Central and Pima was held at the Academy chapel, Friday afternoon. A large number were in attendance. Pima succeeded in carrying off the honors.

"The Merry Milk Maids"

The popular operetta, "The Merry Milk Maids," was played to a large house at Layton Hall last night, by the Academy choir, under the direction of Prof. H. L. Payne.

The chorus of sixty voices was a leading feature and the entire cast played their parts well.

The operetta was a grand success and greatly enjoyed by the audience.

A Specific Against Colds

The nearest thing to a specific against colds is a sleeping porch or open bed room and a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get up. Even then you will occasionally take a cold, especially when colds are epidemic, and when you do you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a great help enabling you to get rid of it. Try it.
